

Markus Löning
Curriculum vitae

Political career

April 2010	Federal Government Commissioner for Human Rights Policy and Humanitarian Aid at the Federal Foreign Office
2005 – 2009	Member of the German Bundestag European policy spokesman of the FDP parliamentary group Chairman of the Parliamentary Friendship Group for Relations with Belgium and Luxembourg
2002 – 2005	Member of the German Bundestag Development policy spokesman of the FDP parliamentary group
Since 2001	Member of the FDP National Executive
Since 2005	Vice-President of the European Liberal Democrats (ELDR)
2004 – 2010	President of the FDP Berlin
2005 – 2009	Chairman of the FDP Federal Committee on International Politics
2005 – 2007	President of the German Group of Liberal International (DGLI)

Profession

1996 – 2006	Owner manager, Löning Werbeagentur, Berlin (advertising agency)
1993 – 1996	Freelance staff, Thienel, Meyer, Partner Werbeagentur, Berlin (advertising agency)
1990 – 1993	Manager, Strich & Punkt – Satz & Grafik, Berlin
1987 – 1990	Owner manager, Le Print Werbeagentur, Mannheim (advertising agency)

Education

1979 – 1989	Heidelberg University, political science
1978/79	University of Kent at Canterbury, computer science
1970 – 1978	European School Luxembourg, European Baccalaureate
1966 – 1970	European School Bergen, the Netherlands